JETS OWNERSHIP

"It all starts at the top."

That's a common phrase when talking about the success of any professional operation, and it particularly holds true with the steps taken to bring about the resurgence of the New York Jets.

Directors Leon Hess and Mrs. Helen Dillon showed their desire to return the club to the forefront of the NFL in 1977 when they selected Jim Kensil to assume the full responsibility of administering the overall operation of the club.

Their patience and commitment towards building a solid foundation have been rewarded the past two years. While some called for changes during the lean years, Hess and Dillon stood behind the Jets' building program and have seen the club advance to the NFL playoffs the past two years.

All skeptics' questions were answered in 1981 when the team finished 10-5-1 and qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1969. Last year's 6-3 club defeated the previous two AFC champions on the road during last year's postseason and came within one game of the Super Bowl.

The Jets' ownership has also fought long and hard to secure early home dates. For over a decade, the Jets had been "orphans" of the NFL, never being allowed to play preseason or regular season games before their fans during the baseball season.

That all changed in 1978 when the Jets opened the season at home for the first time since 1964 and played five games at Shea in September and October. For the remaining year of their lease with the City at Shea, the Jets have been guaranteed at least four early season home games.

Hess has been totally involved in the development of the club since acquiring part of the franchise in 1963, and now holds seventy-five percent ownership. Mrs. Dillon, who retains twenty-five percent, is the daughter of former club president Donald C. Lillis. She assumed the post of vice president in 1968 upon the death of her father and has been an active member ever since.

LEON HESS, chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate affairs, is chairman of the board of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He is a respected member of the board of directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

MRS. HELEN DILLON, vice president, is a vivacious and enthusiastic fan who is in regular attendance at every Jets' game and function. She has become one of the most respected and knowledgeable woman executives in sports and is the first woman on the board of directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. Mrs. Dillon was honored in 1977 by that organization for her contributions to football. She resides in Greenwich, Conn., with her husband, Dr. Thomas F. Dillon.

JIM KENSIL, President

Progress in pro football depends greatly on stability and direction. The Jets believe that in Jim Kensil they have the man at the top to provide these essential elements for success.

In his six seasons with the Jets, Kensil has stressed communication within the organization and has exhibited strong leadership. His efforts have been rewarded as the Jets qualified for the playoffs for the first time in 12 years in 1981 and came within one game of the Super Bowl in 1982.

With the departure of Walt Michaels as head coach after six seasons, Kensil moved quickly to provide the continuity needed to continue the Jets' progress and named offensive coordinator Joe Walton as the club's ninth head coach.

During Kensil's tenure as president, the organization has emphasized the building of the club through the draft. In that time the draft has provided 29 players including 13 starters, four of whom were selected to the Pro Bowl in 1982.

Kensil, who was named the Jets' president and chief operating officer on June 6, 1977, was an administrator for the NFL for 16 years, nine as executive director and seven as director of public relations. Commissioner Pete Rozelle called Kensil, "my offensive and defensive coordinator."

Kensil succeeded Leon Hess, who had served as acting president of the Jets following the death of Phil Iselin in December, 1976. Hess now has the responsibilities of chairman of the board and chief executive officer for corporate matters. Kensil also serves as a member of the board of directors.

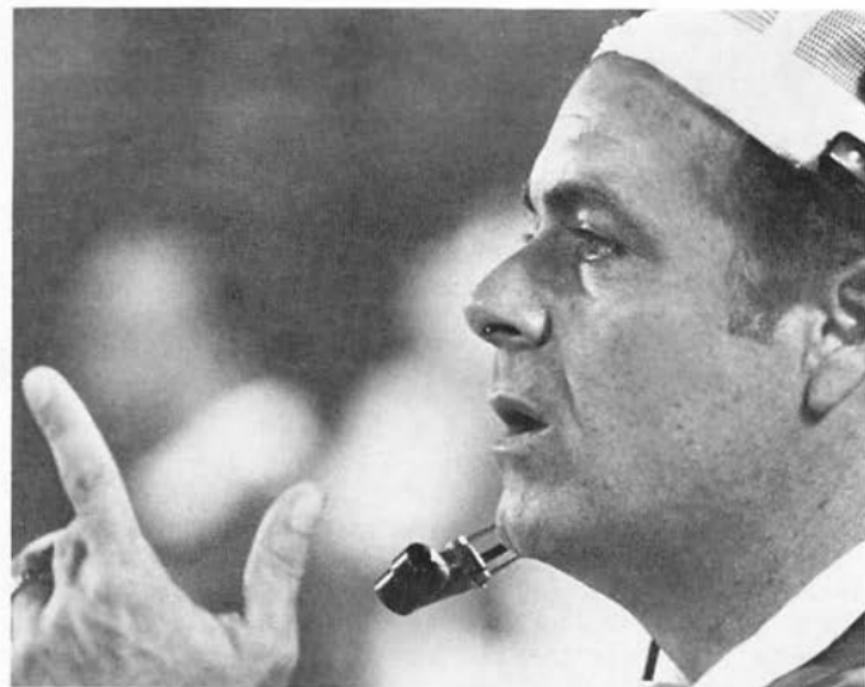

Kensil is a member of the executive committee of NFL Properties and a member of the board of the Bert Bell NFL Retirement Plan.

While in the NFL office, Kensil made many innovative contributions and was one of the chief architects of the present NFL scheduling format.

Kensil began his sportswriting career as a student stringer at the University of Pennsylvania. In 1952 he joined the AP in New York prior to serving in the Army in Germany as editor of the Seventh Army newspaper.

He returned to the AP in 1954 where he covered sports, edited the wire and wrote a weekly column about sports on TV and radio. He left the AP in 1961 to join the NFL as P.R. director.

Kensil was born Aug. 19, 1930, in Philadelphia, Pa. He and his wife, Catherine, have four children and reside in Massapequa, Long Island. Their oldest son, Mike 27, is traveling secretary for the Jets. They also have two other sons, Joe 25 and Danny 21, and a daughter, Mary Jo 23.

JOE WALTON, Head Coach

"I've had two years to observe him very closely and have seen the fine job he's done both on and off the field," said Jets' president Jim Kensil naming offensive coordinator Joe Walton as the team's new head coach last February. Walton, who succeeds the retired Walt Michaels, becomes the ninth head coach in Jets' history.

"I don't have to tell you what you've seen our offense do in games," Kensil said. "Joe has an excellent working relationship with the players and will provide continuity. It is extremely important for any franchise to have continuity and I think Joe will provide that. He also understands the organization fully, accepts it, and will fit in perfectly. We have a strong relationship formed already and I expect it will carry us even further in the future."

Walton served as the Jets' offensive coordinator the previous two seasons and played a major role in the club's two successive appearances in the playoffs. He helped develop Richard Todd into one of the finest QBs in the NFL. Under Walton's guidance, Todd finished the 1982 season as the third rated passer in the AFC behind Ken Anderson and Dan Fouts.

"This organization has been well constructed and well built," Walton said. "We hope to maintain what has been done and try to make improvements. As long as we stay healthy, work hard, and continue to have the enthusiasm, there's no reason why we can't be competitive and contenders each year."

The Jets, with the 47-year old Walton calling the plays, exhibited a powerful and balanced attack in 1982 that averaged 357.6 yards per game (146.3 rushing, 211.2 passing). The offense was ranked third in the NFL in the regular season and produced 454.0 yards per game in the Jets' playoff victories against Cincinnati and the Raiders.

"I'm in total accord with the policy of the Jets," Walton said. "I believe in the draft. I think they've done a great job, not only with drafting talented players, but also bringing in quality young men who are great to work with. I have a lot of respect for the program and organization that Walt Michaels helped build."

Walton enters his new endeavor with the total support of his players.

"Joe gives you the tools to work with along with the discipline that you need," said QB Richard Todd. "He commands a great deal of respect, yet he doesn't put himself above you and you feel like you can talk to him about anything. Joe knows, and has shown in the past, how to get the best out of everybody. The guys though should button-up their chin straps because Joe can also

"Joe Walton brought stability to our offense," said all-pro center Joe Fields. "He has the knack of patting you when you need it and kicking you in the butt when you need it. He seems to know who to do it to and whom not."

While serving as the Jets' offensive coordinator, Walton also developed strong ties with players on the defensive unit. DT Marty Lyons said, "Going into the playoffs, Joe came over to Joe Klecko and me and said, 'I know you guys are hurt, but you mean a lot to this team. They need you.' That's what we needed to go out and play hurt. Joe Walton has a relationship with everyone on the team, defense as well as offense. We couldn't have a finer replacement as head coach."

Walton joined the Jets in 1981 after coaching with Washington from 1974 and serving as its offensive coordinator since 1978. He is credited with the development of Redskin QB Joe Theismann. Under Walton, Theismann was the second highest rated passer in the NFL in 1979 behind Roger Staubach. Washington experienced only one losing season during his seven years there while compiling a 61-43 record.

"Joe Walton is a special kind of guy," said Theismann. "We became two bodies in one mind while he was here. In his last three years here, I spent more time with Joe than I had with any one member of my own family. I consider the time I was with him an invaluable experience."

Walton was in charge of the receivers and passing game for the Giants from 1969-73. He tutored both Fran Tarkenton and Norm Snead during that era. Snead won the NFL passing championship and went to the Pro Bowl in Walton's last season with the Giants, 1973. Tarkenton went to the Pro Bowl under Walton in 1969 and 1970. Walton did some radio work before joining the Giants' staff as a scout from 1967-68.

Walton was Washington's second round draft choice in 1957 and played four seasons before being traded to the Giants in 1961. He played tight end for the Giants, who won championships in all three seasons he played there. Walton caught 95 passes for 1,321 yards and 17 TDs during that time.

In his overall career he caught 178 passes for 2,623 yards and 28 TDs. Walton was called by Y.A. Tittle "the best third down receiver in the game, bar none", while Walton claims that "Tittle was probably the most influential man in my ideas about the passing game and total offensive picture".

Walton, despite standing only 5 feet 10 inches and weighing 185 pounds, played tight end and linebacker for three years at the University of Pittsburgh and won all-America ranking.

As a rookie with the Redskins in 1957, Walton was originally tried at left cornerback (Don Shula was the right cornerback) before being moved to his natural position, tight end.

His introduction to football came a lot earlier than that, though. Walton's father, Frank, was an all-America guard at Pittsburgh, played in the first College All-Star game in 1934 and went on to play for the Redskins when they were still the Boston Redskins. Walton's father, nicknamed "Tiger", served as a player/assistant coach when the team moved to Washington in 1944-45. In 1946, at the age of 11, Joe Walton started week-ending at Pittsburgh Steeler camps, where his father served as their offensive line coach.

The grandson of Italian immigrants, Walton's family came to this country with the surname Tataseo. "My grandfather, who came over when he was 17, changed our name," said Walton. "He was working on the railroad and I guess he wanted a name that was easier to pronounce. I heard he used Wilson first, but that was too common, and he kind of settled on Walton."

Although football is a very important part of Walton's life, he is a strong family man who enjoys spending time in his East Islip, N.Y.

home. Walton relaxes by jogging every day and playing golf in the offseason.

Walton was born Dec. 15, 1935 in Beaver Falls, Pa. He and his wife, Ginger, have three children: daughters Jodi 19, Stacy 17 and son Joseph Jr. 11.

Joe Walton's football philosophy — "You win with the basics but you have to be a little clever in what you do. That's the reason I like multiple formations and why I like to try some different things. You win with discipline and basics, but I like to have some fun with the game, too, not only as a coach but I think the players enjoy doing something different once in a while and I think the fans enjoy it. Football's tough enough as it is, you can't make it a complete drudgery, it's good to have some fun with it also."

I'm never gonna get complacent. I've seen guys get filled with themselves. They walk around like they're God's gift. They think they don't have to work anymore. Who are they kidding? Too many people forget the hard times. Not me. That would be stupid. That would be like taking all my work and tossing it out the window.

—Joe Klecko

Joe was an inspiration to the rest of us. You talk about leading by example. You see a guy literally leave his crutches in his locker and run onto the field, that's leadership.

—Marty Lyons

Joe is probably the strongest football player I've ever faced. You can't let him get a lot of momentum because he's like a bulldozer when he hits you. He's a unique DE because he's shorter than most of them. But, he weighs 270, and for a guy his size, he's got great speed.

Freeman is a slasher. He's like a stiletto ready to cut your throat. He makes the plays happen. He has that instinct. Freeman doesn't have to see that hole. He can feel it. He doesn't have to have an excellent block. He can make any block an excellent block.

1982 JETS GAME-BY-GAME

(Attendance figures are turnstile counts)

Sept. 12, MIAMI 45, at JETS 28 (53,360) — Warm and humid. The Jets paid dearly for their numerous mistakes in their season opener as Miami dominated play to crush the New Yorkers, 45-28. "It was a comedy of errors," said Walt Michaels. Miami won the war in the trenches as their offensive line nullified the rush of the Sack Exchange (0 sacks) and their defensive line pressured Richard Todd into 3 interceptions. Miami started the scoring with an 80-yard drive following the opening kickoff, but the Jets answered back in 3 plays (a hurried up offense). Then Tommy Vigorito returned a punt 59 yards for a TD and a Miami 14-7 lead. From then on it was all downhill for the Jets as the Dolphins picked off 2 Todd passes and returned them for TDs to ice the game.

Sept. 19, JETS 31, at NEW ENGLAND 7 (53,515) — Sunny and fair. For the Jets, it was a victory and a loss. They won the game over the Patriots 31-7, but lost DE Joe Klecko. The all-pro DE tore the tendons in his knee and underwent surgery. The Jets and Pats got off to a slow start and the score stood at 0-0 after 25 minutes. The Jets set a club record for least amount of yardage allowed — 57 and least amount of net passing yardage allowed — a total of minus 4. The defensive effort was so strong, that the Patriots managed only 5 first downs, and only 2 of those came after the first quarter. The "Swarming Defense" produced 6 QB sacks and 3 INTs. The offense produced a 396-yard day, led by Freeman McNeil's 106 yards. Richard Todd was 17-27-165 and threw for one TD and ran for another.

Nov. 21, at JETS 37, BALTIMORE 0 (46,970) — Cloudy and cold.

The Jets couldn't ask for anymore as the team resumed play after 8 weeks in impressive fashion with a 37-0 triumph. Freeman McNeil became the first Jet RB in history to have 3 consecutive 100-yard plus days (123 on 22 carries vs. Colts), he also caught a 32-yard TD from Richard Todd. The Jets scored the first 5 times they had the ball and on 7 of their first 8 possessions. They preserved the shutout with a blocked FG, a goal line stand, an interception at the J5 and a fumble recovery.

Nov. 28, at JETS 15, GREEN BAY 13 (53,872) — Overcast and cold. It wasn't pretty, but the Jets will take it. That was the feeling in the New Yorkers' lockerroom following their 15-13 squeaker. The Jets made a lot of big mistakes—failing to score from the one, two missed PATs, a blocked FG, an interception that led to a TD and a fumble while trying to run out the clock, but then they made the big plays. The Pack drove to the NY33 in the closing minutes, but Kenny Neil and Lance Mehl knifed through to stop the Packers' Gary Ellis for a 6-yard loss and then the frustrated Ellis threw the ball away for a 5-yard penalty. Greg Buttle then sealed the victory after bottling TE Paul Coffman short of the first down.

Dec. 6, JETS 28, at DETROIT 13 (79,361) — Indoors. On Monday night football, Richard Todd and Wesley Walker made the big plays in the first half and the defense did the job in the second half as the Jets gained their fourth straight victory. The Todd and Walker combination staked the Jets to a 21-3 halftime lead and when the Lions started to roar in the second half, the defense came to the rescue to shut the door. Todd completed 23 of 32 for 384 yards and hooked up with Walker for 3 TDs, 2 in the second quarter of 56 and 41 yards and the clincher midway through the fourth quarter, a 19-yarder. Detroit closed the Jets' lead to 21-10 and following a fumble recovery had the ball at the Jets one-yard line. But the defense picked up a Billy Sims' fumble to halt the drive. Moments later they stiffened inside their own 10 and forced a Detroit FG. For the evening, the Jets' defense intercepted 3 passes, recovered 2 fumbles, recorded 5 sacks.

The Jets overcame the weather (23 degrees and snow) and the Buccaneers for their fifth straight triumph. The New Yorkers jumped to a 14-0 lead scoring the first time they had the ball and then recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and 2 plays later turned that into a 5-yard McNeil TD. Richard Todd directed the Jets' offense with 17-29-189-1TD-0INT. The defense picked off 2 Doug Williams passes, recovered 3 fumbles and held the Bucs to only 22-47 rushing.

Dec. 18, at MIAMI 20, JETS 19 (67,702) — Warm and clear. In a game that had a playoff flavor to it, the Dolphins booted the Jets, 20-19 as Uwe von Schamann kicked a 47-yard FG with only 3 seconds remaining. The Jets overcame a 17-16 Dolphin lead when Pat Leahy kicked a 49-yard FG with 9:06 left, but the New Yorkers couldn't hold on as Miami drove 53 yards to set up the winning score. The Jets jumped to a 6-0 lead in the first 4 minutes as Richard Todd and Wesley Walker hooked up on a 22-yard pass, but a damaging blow was struck when the PAT was missed. The half ended with the score 17-16 in favor of the Dolphins as the Jets got a 40-yard FG. Both defenses took charge in the second half and neither team scored until the 4th period FGs. Injuries twice forced Todd from the game.

Dec. 26, JETS 42, at MINNESOTA 14 (58,672) — Indoors. The Jets clinched their second straight spot in the playoffs with a wild victory over the Vikings. Big plays were the order of the day and CB Bobby Jackson was the head chef. Jackson scored on a crazy blocked FG going the final 80 of the 95-yards and also went 77-yards with an interception for another TD. Pat Ryan hooked up with Mickey Shuler on a 20-yard fake FG for a TD and Lance Mehl set up another score with a 38-yard interception return. The Vikings controlled the ball for over 38 minutes and gained 484 yards, but could only manage 14 points as the Jets' defense bent but wouldn't break.

Jan. 2, at KANSAS CITY 37, JETS 13 (11,902) — Cloudy and cold. "It's my fault. I couldn't convince my team that the 42 points we scored last week (vs. Minnesota) was a fluke. I warned them about it, I couldn't convince them of it," said Walt Michaels following the Jets' 37-13 beating at Kansas City. The Jets broke on top quickly, 6-0, but had to settle for a pair of FGs instead of touchdowns, and KC drew new life and scored 37 unanswered points until the New Yorkers got a TD late in the game from reserve QB Pat Ryan. The Chiefs got outstanding passing out of Bill Kenney with 18-27-223 yards and 3 TDs and added a running game of 146 yards. Freeman McNeil left the game after his first carry in the 3rd quarter with a hamstring injury. DT Ben Rudolph suffered a sprained knee and was declared out of the playoffs. Marvin Powell (ankle), Greg Buttle (groin), Marty Lyons (hamstring) and Johnny Lynn (groin, hamstring) did not play.

RULES FOR FREE RE-ACTIVATIONS FROM INJURED RESERVE

Each club shall have during a season (including postseason) a maximum of three free re-activations from injured reserve which may be used only on players who were placed on reserve after the final cutdown of that year. In order for a club to use a free re-activation on any player injured in the preseason, such player must count on the active list at the final cutdown and be placed on injured reserve thereafter. Free re-activations may be used only on players who meet the four-week minimum requirements from the date of going on injured reserve during the regular season or from the date the injury occurred in preseason. The four-week minimum means that a player's injury renders him physically unable to play football for a minimum of four weeks.

1968 AFL CHAMPIONSHIP

DEC. 29, 1968 — SHEA STADIUM

NEW YORK 27, OAKLAND 23

The New York Jets climaxed their finest season in history (11-3) by scoring a 27-23 victory over Oakland. A title game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack. Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the only coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

JAN. 12, 1969 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

NEW YORK 16, BALTIMORE 7

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (four yards) and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries.

The defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two; Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample, one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and made him the only man ever to coach world champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF
DEC. 20, 1969 — SHEA STADIUM
KANSAS CITY 13, NEW YORK 6

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters, neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal on the one-yard line, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg, failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it, 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only TD of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets' series, but a fourth down incompletion and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the world championship.

1981 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

DEC. 27, 1981 — SHEA STADIUM

BUFFALO 31, NEW YORK 27

In one of the most exciting playoff games ever played, the Buffalo Bills hung on to defeat the Jets, 31-27 as Bill Simpson made an interception on the two-yard line with time running out.

The Bills scored on the opening kickoff when they recovered a Bruce Harper fumble and quickly built that to a 24-0 second quarter lead. The Jets rallied in the third quarter to make it 24-13. The game appeared over as Joe Cribbs busted a 50-yard TD to give Buffalo a 31-13 lead with 10:16 left.

The Jets refused to die, however, and with Richard Todd at the controls, New York scored 2 quick TDs and were now down 31-27 with 3:44 to go. A swarming defense forced the Bills to go three and out and with 2:36 left and the goal line 80-yards away, Todd started the Jets on their march. They drove to the Bills 11-yard line with 14 seconds on the clock, but Simpson made his game-saving interception and the Jets' season ended.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 9, 1983 — CINCINNATI RIVERFRONT STADIUM

NEW YORK 44, CINCINNATI 17

The Jets mixed up solid and hard hitting football with a measure of razzle dazzle on offense and gimmicks on defense to beat the Bengals at Cincinnati in round one of the NFL Super Bowl tournament. The Bengals jumped to leads of 14-3 and 14-10 and were threatening to score again, when the Jets' defense might have made the play of the day. Nickel back Johnny Lynn made an interception at the J1 and with Freeman McNeil leading the way behind an awesome performance by the offensive line, the Jets surged to a 17-14 lead which they never surrendered. McNeil was the "cannon" being shot by Richard Todd 21 times for 202 yards and one TD.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF

JAN. 15, 1983 — LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

NEW YORK 17, L.A. RAIDERS 14

The Jets spring upset number two in the 2nd round of the Super Bowl tournament, beating the Raiders to enter the AFC championship game. Richard Todd's 45-yard pass to Wesley Walker set up the winning one-yard TD run by Scott Dierking, but it took a pair of Lance Mehl interceptions in the last 3 minutes to wrap it up for the Jets. New York jumped to a 10-0 lead on a 20-yard TD pass from Todd to Walker and a Pat Leahy FG, but the Raiders came storming back in the 2nd half to take a 14-10 lead. The Jets came back to take the lead at the 3:45 mark following the Todd to Walker bomb, but the Raiders still had plenty of time. It looked as if the Jets had put the Raiders away when Mehl intercepted Plunkett at the LA27 with only 2:49 left, but the Raiders got one more chance when they recovered a McNeil fumble at their own 33 with 2:26 to go. Then Mehl made his clinching interception and this time the Jets ran out the clock.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

JAN. 23, 1983 — MIAMI ORANGE BOWL

MIAMI 14, NEW YORK 0

On an extremely muddy field at Miami's Orange Bowl, the Jets and Dolphins waged a defensive battle which ended with Miami on top 14-0 to earn a trip to the Super Bowl. A.J. Duhe was the hero of the game which saw a total of 12 turnovers, with three interceptions, returning the final one 35-yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter. Woody Bennett ran seven yards for the first Miami touchdown on the Dolphins' first possession of the third quarter, capping a 48-yard, seven-play drive following Duhe's second interception. The poor field conditions severely hurt the Jets' rushing attack as Freeman McNeil, who had rushed for 303 yards in the previous two playoff wins, was limited to only 46 yards on 17 carries due to the footing. At halftime, it was the first time in NFL playoff history that two teams were deadlocked at 0-0. The Jets passing game was also hindered as Richard Todd was intercepted a record-tying five times by Miami. The New York defense held Miami to only 198 net yards, intercepted David Woodley three times and forced three fumbles.

WEBB EWANK — A HALL OF FAMER

Weeb Ewbank, who guided the Jets for more than a decade, was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame on July 29, 1978.

The former Jets' and Colts' (1954-62) head coach achieved a distinction that will never be matched — the only coach to win world championships in both leagues.

The Colts were dismal losers when Weeb took over in 1954. He built them up to the NFL champions in 1958 when they beat the Giants in a memorable sudden death overtime and they won the title again in 1959. Weeb joined the Jets in 1963 and developed them to the team that shocked the Colts in Super Bowl III.

Weeb joined impressive company. Paul Brown, George Halas and Vince Lombardi are the only coaches in the Hall of Fame who were contemporaries of Weeb during his head coaching career.
